Dear Friends & Supporting Churches,

These are exciting days for us as we see the deputation finish line draw ever closer! With our support increasing, we feel that we are in our “senior year” of deputation. This makes us eager to finish and yet overwhelmed by all that must be done in the meantime. One thing we need to do before moving is focusing on learning Danish. Danish is not as popular and thus options for training is limited. Please pray that God would direct us to the right place or person that can help us in this area. These past two months have taken us to West Virginia, Alabama, Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, and Maryland.

“The heart set to do the Father’s will need never fear defeat.”

– Elisabeth Elliot

The Lord has given us several opportunities to impact young people. Gage taught a teen boys Sunday school class, preached a couple of elementary school chapels, preached in bus church, and spoke in both high school and elementary classes. Gage also spoke with a boy seeking God’s will for his life. Aleah taught a teen girls Sunday school class, shared her testimony in a couple high school classes, and spoke to several elementary classes. Only God knows the fruit that will come from these opportunities. As promised, below is a chart detailing the needs for our outfit and passage. Thank you so much for your faithful prayers and financial support!

In Christ,
Gage & Aleah Gilbert
